NEW YEAR RESOLUTION: LOOSE WEIGHT, CUT DOWN ON CHOCOLATE, & GO ON LINE
I have to tell you, I did something really dumb when I started serving on the board and working on decreasing our newsletter mailing. As you know it has been our goal to get the mailing list down and have it accessed on line by those who can do this. I know, I know, I have been on this "snail mail" subject for quite a while but, the postal mailing list is looking better with each passing month and that is making me a really happy camper. Early last year I realized that I was promoting this and still getting my paper copy in the mail. You know the old saying "Do as I say and not as I do." Well, I immediately took my name off of the list and soon discovered that our Emmaus "computer guy" was also getting his Rooster Tales by snail mail. HELLO! I emailed him after a good laugh and tore up his mailing label. Another problem that we are having is incorrect addresses, phone numbers and emails. The phone numbers are important because many times a lay director, who is trying to put a team of servants together for an upcoming walk, cannot get through if the number is incorrect. If you think that your contact information is wrong, please email me or anyone on the board, and we will verify this for you. If your email has changed, you can go to the Rooster Tales web page and unsubscribe your old address and subscribe the new one or, we can do this for you if you notify us. My New Years Resolution is to see the mailing list get smaller and smaller and smaller along with losing weight and cutting down on chocolates. So, if I see you at a Gathering, Candlelight, Closure or in the grocery store don't be surprised if I ask you if you are receiving the Rooster Tales on line and hopefully your answer will be "Yes."

Happy New Year
